Hey, men! Who wears the pants in your family? Have you settled into the couch because you are not sure how to be a real true-grit, hard-core, living-for-God kind of guy? Where do you find good role models? Have you ever wondered what God really expects from YOU, the patriarch and leader of your family?

Little Bear Wheeler, founder of Mantle Ministries, will challenge us men to rise up and lead our families, bless our children, and train them in Godly character, so that they, too, may pass on a legacy of glory and honor to our Lord. As an historian/evangelist, Little Bear proclaims the truth of godly manhood via enthralling depictions of historical events and true stories not found in public instruction nor in books published during the last 100 years.

As the mantle of ministry was passed from Elijah to Elisha, the purpose of Mantle Ministries is that of passing a mantle of America's Christian heritage from one generation to another, thereby preserving a Godly legacy and Christ-honoring standard given to us by our Founding Fathers.

For more information on Little Bear, visit his website: www.mantleministries.com/

During this CHECC-sponsored conference, Little Bear will be speaking in three sessions, and there will be time for Q&A. This event is specifically geared toward dads and mature young men (young men must attend with their dads).

To register, go to www.checc.net/ and follow the links to the Dads' Conference registration form.
Registration Deadline: April 1.
